

American Velodrome Challenge Day 1

Speeds, thrilling finishes and hot weather brings excitement

Day one saw a lot of fast and thrilling finishes especially in the Men and Women's keirin. In the Montano Velo Men's Keirin finals, Adam Duvendeck led with one lap to go but couldn't hold it. Local sprinter Giovanni Rey overtook Kelyn Akuna and Adam Duvendeck. Out of nowhere, Gideon Massie came from the high line and nipped Rey at the line drawing a lot of cheers.

In the Milroy Construction Women's Keirin finals, Jennifer Feathergill held off Larryn Ruegg and Becky Lang to win outright.

In the SportVelo Women's points race, local hero Shelley Olds of Proman Racing had her team work for her and it turned out to be a race for the second. Jennifer Triplett had this to say "The proman women did a great job of leading out Shelley Olds each sprint so it was a race for second. Awesome race to all who raced".

In the Madison race, 9 teams showed up for a very fast Madison. Daniel Holloway and Ben Barsi-Rhyne of Slipstream sports set the tempo the whole race. Kenny Williams and Grant Boursaw of First Rate Mortgage tried to keep it close but Holloway was able to grab the points during sprints.

Massie is back in business and dominates American Velodrome Challenge

2008 USA Olympian Gideon Massie, preparing for the Beijing Olympics, started off the day by doing 2nd fast 200tt with a 11.08. After going thru the rounds, he battled the sprint finals with a newcomer Jimmy Watkins (11.07) to beat him in 2 straight thrilling finishes. Not to be outdone by endurance racers, Gideon also raced in the points race and battled with a world class field with the likes of Kenny Williams and Daniel Holloway. Gideon raced well enough to score 3rd place points, but unfortunately lost a lap while trying to recover from one of his great sprints near the end of the race. Wrapping up the evening with a flying lap (19.1) to seal one of the most successful nights of his career, Gideon had this to say "This was an awesome weekend and I enjoyed racing with those guys a lot. I'll be back".

Adam Duvendeck (11.22) of Momentum Cycling Team defeated Kelyn Akuna (11.37), Veritas, to complete the podium for the Elite sprints.

In one of the most fastest points race ever at Hellyer Velodrome, Kenny Williams pulled away from the field to win the final sprint and the $1,000 dollars in the John Peckham Memorial Race. Matt Talbott, a points racer, had this to say "This was insane. We were lulling around at 30 mph and sprinting at 37+ mph everytime but this was tons of fun".

Adam Duvendeck of Momentum Cycling Team had this to say "This is easily one of the best races in the country and I really hope this continues to grow and track racing will be once popular again in the United States" when commenting about the incredible crowds of the weekend. He added this "Now that American Velodrome Challenge is done with, it's back to the grind for the Olympics which I can't wait".
