Going into the final sprint in the Women's Concept Cyclery Points race, the race was very close with CC Altamirano holding a slight edge with 7 points, closely followed by Alissa Maglaty with 6 points and Katie Norton with 5 points. The final sprint would also determine the final omnium placing with Altamirano holding a thin 2-point lead in the overall. Altamirano left nothing to chance and took the final sprint from the front.

Morgan Bonar was thrilled that she won the custom bike fit from Concept Fit. Concept Cyclery's unique fit studio, Concept Fit, will enhance everyone's riding experience, regardless if that is a weekly ride in the neighborhood with the kids, or an Ironman Triathlon.

Highlights from Women's Points and Montano Velo Keirins -- including a look at the Montano final from Pete Billington's bike!
